

100 POINTS OF VIEW

JOEL SANDERSON

100 Points of View

1985 McFarland Gallery Exhibit

Photographs by Joel Sanderson

1982 - 1985

Poloroid photographs manipulated with copier machines.

Edited by Demolition Kitchen Media, 2024

© Copyright 2024
Joel Sanderson & Demolition Kitchen Media
All rights reserved

"One Hundred Points of View:" a collection of electrographic prints by Joel Sanderson, will be shown from September 15 through September 26, 1986, at the McFarland Gallery on the first floor of the Campus Activities Center at Wichita State University, Wichita, Kansas. Joel will be on hand at the opening reception, 7 to 10 p.m. on Monday, September 15. McFarland Gallery hours are:

Monday	7:30 - 9:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Tuesday	8 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Wednesday	7:30 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Thursday	8 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Friday	7:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.

This is Joel's fifth showing at McFarland Gallery. He grew up in an art-intensive environment, and, since then, has constructed items for the Music Theater of Wichita, privately recorded and released several tapes, and is a member of a local band. His art has appeared at Emporia State University student shows, Marple Theater, Poverty Records, and a group show at Staples Gallery at W.S.U. Joel has participated in the Wichita Art Fair, and he has worked as a freelance graphic artist for a cable TV station and for local businesses designing logotypes. Joel is a local disk jockey and can be heard on KMWU.

This exhibition is a continuation of Joel's fascination with xerography---this time employing photographic techniques. This is an exploration of hidden patterns in everyday surroundings, as revealed in light and shadow. Joel has always thought that amusement and fun play a large part in his art, as well as a component of good sportsmanship. He feels art can be a recreational hobby, but is foremost a fundamental means of personal expression.

"I like to build structures out of things around me, altering them to fit my version of a reality, creating form and content from simplicity."

(Above) The original artist statement from the exhibit, (below) a photo of the exhibit entryway.

1. The first section of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second section outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping, including the need to maintain separate accounts for each transaction and to ensure that all records are properly indexed and filed.

3. The third section describes the procedures for the periodic review and audit of the records. It states that all records must be subject to a thorough review at least once a year, and that any discrepancies or irregularities must be reported immediately to the appropriate authorities.

4. The fourth section discusses the consequences of failing to comply with the record-keeping requirements. It notes that individuals or organizations that fail to maintain accurate records may be subject to severe penalties, including fines and imprisonment.

5. The fifth section provides a summary of the key points of the document and reiterates the importance of strict adherence to the record-keeping requirements.

6. The sixth section discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

7. The seventh section outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping, including the need to maintain separate accounts for each transaction and to ensure that all records are properly indexed and filed.

8. The eighth section describes the procedures for the periodic review and audit of the records. It states that all records must be subject to a thorough review at least once a year, and that any discrepancies or irregularities must be reported immediately to the appropriate authorities.

9. The ninth section discusses the consequences of failing to comply with the record-keeping requirements. It notes that individuals or organizations that fail to maintain accurate records may be subject to severe penalties, including fines and imprisonment.

10. The tenth section provides a summary of the key points of the document and reiterates the importance of strict adherence to the record-keeping requirements.

